

Courchevel 1650 Meeting Points & Details

Courchevel 1650

Background

Courchevel is one of the most popular Alpine ski resorts. The resort is part of the World's largest ski area - the three valleys. The wide and well groomed slopes are excellent for early and intermediate skiers. For better skiers 1650 is a bit of a secret. There's off-piste and steeper terrain here that most people don't know about. Off-piste runs such as the Hidden Valley, Grumpy's Gully and Disneyland await the more intrepid skier.

Meeting Point Details

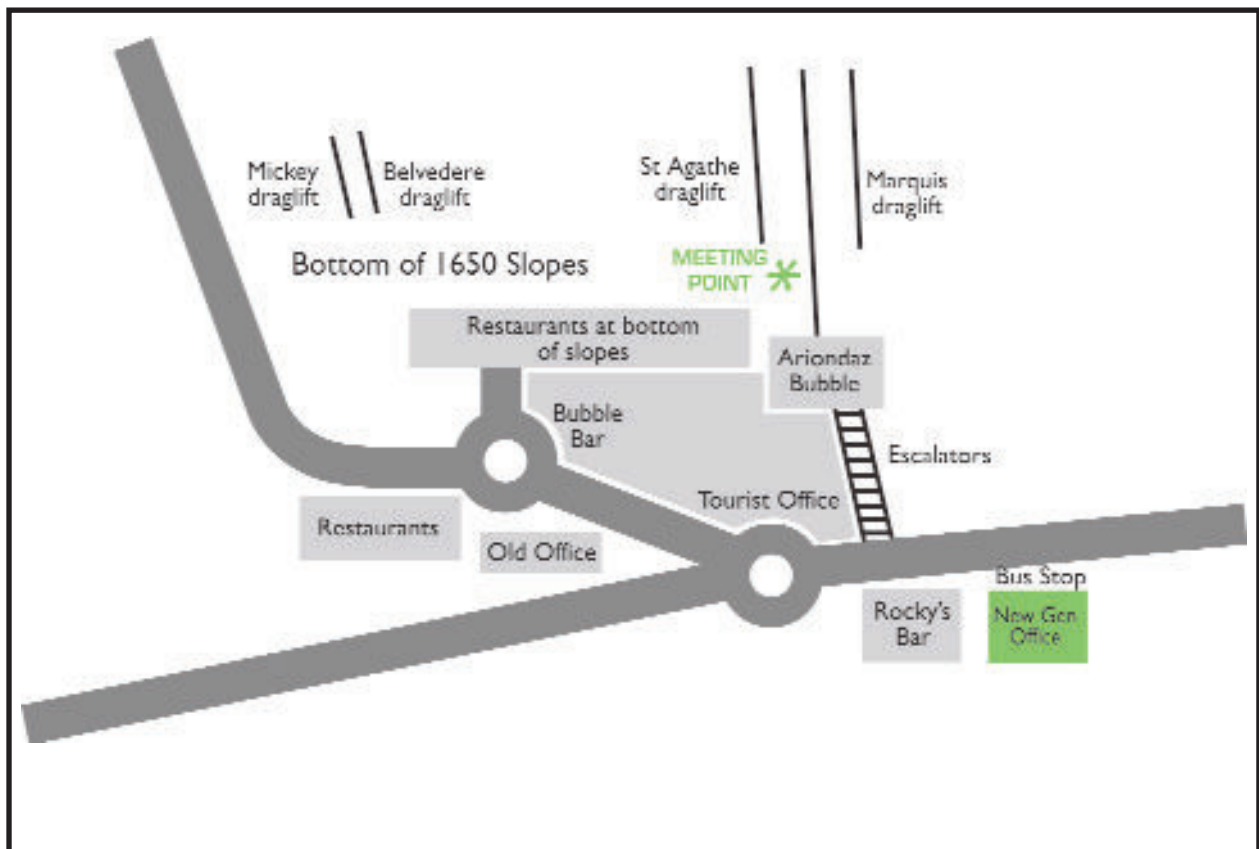

The New Generation meeting point is situated underneath the first pylon of the Ariondaz telecabine. Go up the escalator, through the glass doors at the top and up the stairs immediately in front of you. The meeting point is up the slope between the two drag lifts. New Generation ski and snowboard instructors are easily identifiable in their green jackets and pants.

Don't Forget...
